Weekly Roundup

Winter made its first appearance here on Saturday last when five inches of wet snow fell in a very short time. Highway travel was very hazardous. — Some 18 cars were counted who had slipped off the highway between here and Minden. The mail bus did not arrive in Haliburton until after 7 p.m.

Hunting season is in full swing and some parties have reported that they have had little success in securing deer while others have shot their quota. Contrary to expectations very few bear have been bagged so far.

Mrs. Robert Whiteheal & son of Windsor are the guests of her parents Mr. & Mrs. Wm. Sheardon.

HIGH SCHOOL BOARD AND PROMINENT OFFICIALS AT OPENING OF NEW HIGH SCHOOL

C. H. Irwin Speaks On Behalf Of School Board

The formal opening of the Haliburton County District High School by Premier Frost on Wednesday, Nov. 4, marked the culmination of the efforts of your appointed board since its inception, January 1, 1948. To build and operate the school was the purpose for which it was formed.

The project, the largest in county history, has involved a great deal of time, thought and money, which, we hope, its usefulness will vindicate. I wish to thank all the members of the board who have laboured with me in this venture and also those officials, both county and provincial, whose co-operation has been so essential.

In the past, under handicaps, a number of our students have brought honour to themselves and to the county and in so doing have increased greatly their chances for personal success in a very competitive world. Also through their well developed talents, their opportunities to be of service and give leadership in various spheres have been enlarged. In our rapidly developing country, province and county there is plenty of scope for able leaders and from among the graduates of our new institution we shall look for an increasing number of these.

Not the least value of our new, well equipped high school should be found in the opportunities it may offer to many parents and other adults, who, whether for pleasure or profit, may care to attend evening classes in a variety of subjects. The choice of subjects must be limited by the instructors available and by the necessity to have a minimum of twelve persons enroll for each subject, in order to qualify for government grants. There are many problems involved in working out the plans but the board is hopeful that a start may be made early in the new year and information will be published in the press as plans mature.

I ask everyone to do his best to make this school of the greatest service possible to the county.

C. H. IRWIN
Chairman, Haliburton County District High School Board.

Message Of Principal Sisco

The completion of the construction and the official opening and dedication of the Haliburton County District High School is a landmark in the history of Haliburton County. However, it is a landmark which indicates a point of beginning rather than a final goal. The men and women of this community, who conceived the idea of a large, modern school serving the entire area, and who planned and worked to make their dream a reality, have only laid the foundation. It remains for the students, the staff and the community at large to complete the work.

A high school is judged by the product that turns out. It's business is to take boys and girls who have received the fundamentals of learning in the elementary schools and to develop them into young adults who will be worthy citizens of a great country.

This is not accomplished by "book learning" alone. The school should offer the opportunity of developing leadership ability in student affairs. It should provide an athletic program which will build sound bodies and foster a spirit of sportmanship and fair play. It should encourage an appreciation and a desire for the best in literature, in music and in art, the hallmarks of our civilization. It should inspire the honesty and strength of character that is rooted in a love of humanity and a firm belief in God.

A school of this type cannot be built in a day, or even a year. It cannot be built without the interest, the encouragement and the co-operation of the entire community. It requires a skilled and dedicated teaching staff, and it requires parents who are vitally interested in their children's welfare, and it requires a general public that is appreciative of the place of the school in the community and is willing to make the financial contribution necessary to its existence. All these attributes are present in Haliburton County. It is the responsibility of everyone to see that they are combined to create a truly great school.

PROGRESS

Last week marked another milestone in the steady progress of the County when the new Haliburton County District High School was officially opened by the Prime Minister of the Province, The Hon. Leslie M. Frost.

Great strides have been made throughout the Highlands of Haliburton in the past decade. During those years we have seen the tourist industry grow with such giant strides that it has more than trebled.

Modern highways have opened up new areas that ten years ago were unheard of, lakes that were unknown to the average citizens now have cottages and summer camps lining their shores and the fame of our beautiful highlands with their 555 lakes has spread far and wide and is fast becoming known as Canada's most attractive summer playground.

Modern homes, shops, arenas, community halls and schools have sprung up across the county.

Now our ambitious young students will not have to go out of the county for secondary school education for the splendid new High School has been erected to serve the educational requirements of our youth.

This new edifice is one in which every citizen can take great pride, for it embodies the latest and best to be found anywhere, and, in some respects it is quite unique, in that it has some unusual features never before employed in school construction.

In conversation with the manager of one of the large contracting firms who assisted in the erection of the school, he stated that while his firm has for many years specialized in school construction, he had never worked on a more complete or better laid out building than the Haliburton County District High School. His company had fulfilled contracts on larger buildings but none with the beauty of design and workmanship and beautiful surroundings that this school has.

The Echo is pleased to extend congratulations to the architect Gordon S. Adamson of Toronto; the contractor M. Sullivan & Son Ltd. of Arnprior; Geo. Price & Co. Ltd. the heating contractors and the sub-contractors who all did such a fine job in the erection and equipping of the school; and to the High School Board who worked so faithfully and well in the planning and development of it.

Lochlin Farm Forum

"What contribution does the farm wife make to the working partnership?" was the question considered by Lochlin Farm Forum on Nov. 9th.

The two discussion groups agreed that her part depends on the physical condition, education and time she can spare from duties in the house. If not able to do actual outdoors type of labour she should help with planning farm business, in bookkeeping and keep informed on farming technique and marketing problems. It was felt wisest for husband and wife to each have a will, and especially should one accident prove fatal to both.

The Nov. 16 meeting will be at the home of Sandy Gilbert and the topic is "The Challenge of Dairy Products.

Our Trip to Drag Lake — Haliburton

A Diary kept by Mr J. C. Edwards, who made the trip with Willie Clarke in the fall of 1892.

Oct. 1st — Saturday

A gale blowing this morning from the north and the lake very rough, the wind howling and shrieking over Sand Point, but our tent is standing firm. We could not get to our line until 5 p. m. when it moderated and found most of the bait washed off and our floats on the bottom, water logged, so left it as it was and returned to camp at 6.45 at dusk. Very cold tonight so we had to have a good fire to have our supper by. During the day I did various odd jobs, Will chopping and carrying wood most of the time, getting a good pile of it. A fine moonlight and the lake calmer.

Oct. 2 — Sunday

A sharp frost last night for when Will turned out, everything was white with hoar frost and the tea leaves were frozen in the pot which was left outside. I got up twice during the night to make up the fire for it was very cold in the tent.

Will soon had a rouser on for us to have breakfast by and a good plate of hot porridge each put some warmth in us. A fine day and the sun came out quite hot at noon. The lake being very calm & quiet, we paddled to the marsh and trolled as we went but no bite. It took us three hours to catch ten minnows they bit so badly. Got back at 2 p. m. and after dinner I went in the bush and cut a good dry cedar floater while Will wrote 2 letters. At 4.30 we went to the line put on the floater and baited it, this time to our satisfaction and hoping we get a trout tomorrow. Back to camp at 5.30 when Will set to work and made a heaped up plate of hot cakes while I lit the fires and boiled 3 eggs we had left made the tea and washed up the wares etc., also getting in a stack of wood for the night. The cakes turned out A 1 and we enjoyed them & made a capital supper, both of us feeling comfortably full The wind has changed and is now blowing south. Moonlight and clouds.

Beaverton Club In Tri - County

The Tri - County hockey league held their annual meeting at Woodville on Tuesday night last with all clubs in the league being well represented. Jack Austin and Jim Henry represented the Haliburton club at this meeting. The way that it looks now, the Tri - County group will be made of eight teams for this winter's hockey entertainment. These 8 clubs are as follows:

Coboconk
Beaverton
Cannington
Woodville
Haliburton
Little Britain
Sutton

Keswick have dropped out of the league and Beaverton will step in to fill this vacancy. Port Perry who played last season are doubtful starters. There, trouble seems to be in the lack of player material.

Markham were represented at the meeting and they made a strong bid to try and join the group this season.

After a lengthy discussion their offer was turned down. They will either drop out of the Rural or try to get into another group. As soon as the schedule is released it will be published in this paper.

Sutton Put In Artificial Ice

The Sutton Greenshirts of the O. R. H. A. and great rivals of the Haliburton Huskies have came up with some thing new since the hockey season ended last spring.

This great hockey town now boasts artificial ice in their arena and from all reports have made many other changes in the Sutton Ice Palace.

With artificial ice in now, it will mean that the Sutton club will have the jump on the other clubs as far as condition is concerned. The Sutton team will again be entered in the O.R.H.A. and more then likely the Huskies and the Sutton club will have many thrilling contests this season.

THE WEEKLY SPORT

Latest reports tell us that our good friend Red Mitchell is now Recreation Director at Brampton. We wish him the best of luck. He is well known in Haliburton county as he has refereed here and was in on the hockey schools which have been held in Haliburton.

Bud Dart who is now in the Canadian Army was home for the weekend and Bud has been playing hockey already with the Camp Borden club. He will be a great loss to the Huskies this season.

It is rumored that the Haliburton community hall and park board will soon hold a meeting and tenders will be out for the caretakers job at the Haliburton Community arena.

The management of the Haliburton Huskies hockey club are planning on holding bingos very soon in an effort to raise some money for the club.

When the Haliburton Huskies take to the ice this season there will be some new faces from last seasons club and it looks as if the locals will ice a much stronger club.

4 Huskies On Tri - County All Stars

The Tri - County hockey league came out with the All Stars selected from last season play at their meeting at Woodville held on Tuesday night. Four of the Haliburton Huskies were named on the Try-County All Stars. These players are Al Blanchard, Joe Iles, Herb Baker and Ken Carnochan. The local fans should feel proud to think that four of our players were selected out of the 9 team - group.

In the very near future the All Star Club will meet the Sutton Green Shirts in an All Star game in Sutton.

This club will be managed by our own Jack Austin and they expect to have a couple of workouts in Lindsay in preparation for the big game. It is also expected that the All Stars will use the Haliburton Huskies uniforms in this game. More on this at a later date.

Here And There

Vance English and Doug Hodgson may line up with the Huskies this season ..... The Haliburton Branch of the Canadian Legion are expected to sponsor a minor hockey team this season ..... The Minden Monarchs are lining their club up for the coming hockey season .....

HALIBURTON COUNTY DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL

Opening Of High School As Seen By Toronto Reporter

By DOUGLAS BLANCHARD

They opened a super streamlined high school in Haliburton, designed to make the teen-agers just love their education. But they put in such a beautiful location overlooking the lake, and they installed such big view windows in the classrooms, that it's hard to see how anybody's going to resist the urge to play hookey when the fish are biting and the sun is shining.

"The most beautiful location in Haliburton county. Writers have recognized that for 90 years", said Premier Leslie M. Frost, who cut the ceremonial ribbon. Principal Norman Sisco said he hauled four beauties from the lake when he came up to take over his duties at the beginning of the term. He said the design which makes you think you're right outside overlooking village, lake and hills while you are actually behind glass, is going to give some good training in concenration.

No city boy or girl that I know of goes to a more up-to-date school. Most Toronto students have to take a back seat to Haliburton for modernity in schooling. Quite a contrast to the conventional old continuation school building across the lake in the village.

Green with Envy

It used to be that the city student had all the advantages. Equality of educational opportunity was just a theory. They're certainly putting that theory into practice today. Take a look at the Haliburton High School girls and you find them better groomed and more chic than the city misses. From now on they can learn homemaking among all the latest gadgets of domestic science rooms. Or typing on a set of equipment that made me turn green with envy in the matter of typewriters.

There is a beautiful big gym in an architectural style all its own designed to harmonize with woods and lakes. In a couple of minutes it can be changed into an auditorium or a theatre complete with chairs and props. A streamlined shop for woodwork, metal work, drafting and other crafts. A cafeteria with all the trimmings. An art room. A library. A physics-chemistry-agricultural laboratory of to-morrow. A private locker for every student. Modern office. A modern playing field. Parking lot and heating plant. All harmonized in a design that reminds you of the modern lakeland resorts they build nowadays.

All on Ground Floor

There's a staff of 10 teachers. And they'll conduct adult classes in the evenings. The school will be a community centre. It's all on the ground floor—no basement and no upstairs. If you want to get outside—you just take a few steps. Maybe this is a big advantage in an emergency. Maybe the huge windows let in a lot of light. But I know I'd never be able to sit still in such a set-up. Not with all of Head Lake, all of Haliburton village, the hills and the roads right beside my elbow—coaxing me out through the glass. Which is of a type that makes you think there's no glass at all. And on dull days the cuorescent lighting takes over.

There was the usual ceremony. But the speeches made you think. Those men on the platform remember the days when you had to take a frontier train to get to Haliburton. When there were a few snake roads threading the wilderness. When an ambitious boy or girl who wanted an education beyond public school had to go to the city or to Lindsay to live 10 months in the year. When the provisional county of Haliburton was as remote and as unsettled as parts of the district of Patricia are to-day. When electricity and waterworks were unknown.

Achieved by Praise

But Premier Frost had the right idea. He was a big factor in smoothing the way for this marvellous asset to the country he's so familiar with. He praised all the shiny new gadgets and equipment and comforts and courses. But he reminded everybody that it was God-fearing pioneers with a right outlook on life and a sound moral code who had the character and the capacity for achievment that made all this possible.

Too bad a lot of city folk weren't there to hear the speeches. We're so bombarded with U.S. make-believe sophistication nowadays it seems a bit startling to an urban newspaperman to hear people making speeches about religion and sound morality and Christian character. And to see the presentation of a school Bible and facilities for worship regarded as the headline items in a school dedication program. Maybe we city sophisticates are out of step with realty.

Yesterday I drove up to the village in four hours over velvet smooth roads. Breakfast in Toronto, lunch in Haliburton, dinner in Toronto. Settlement all the way. No more frontier. And I heard the Premier remind us that only 15 per cent of Ontario is settled so far. What a whale of an empire Ontario is going to be when the other 85 per cent is fully developed. The planners had better get busy right now. We're just starting to grow. — Toronto Daily Star.

Weekly Roundup

Possibly the finest film ever produced regarding the missionary work of the Anglican Church was shown in St. George's Church on Thursday evening last. The film was in technicolor portrayed the missionary work being carried on in frozen arctic lands to the torred areas of India, along the British Columbia coast to the shores of Japan. The film was entitled "The Power Within". No one who had the opportunity of seeing this wonderful film could not but be impressed by the story it told of the wonderful work being carried out by the Anglican Church in the fields of mission.

Mr. and Mrs.Wally Crofts of Ingoldsby visited with friends in Haliburton one day last week.

Mr. Coyle Downer made a business trip to Brantford, Kitchener and Preston last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Sedgwick have returned home after visiting Ottawa, Montreal and Quebec. They report that the pea soup was excellent.

Remembrance Day Observed In Haliburton

Armistice Day was fittingly observed in Haliburton on Wednesday.

The members of Canadian Legion BESL 129 headed by the combined Minden and Haliburton Bands marched from the Legion Hall to the cenotaph where in spite of the inclement weather members of the clergy and a goodly number of citizens were gathered to join in the service of remembrance.

The service commenced with the singing of "O Canada" which was followed by a few remarks by Comrade Lloyd Coneybeare, president of the local Canadian Legion.

Following the observing of the Two Minutes Silence wreathes were placed at the base of the cenotaph in the following order:

Eagle Lake Public School by Eleanor Tripp;
Haliburton County High School by Shirley Dawson;
Haliburton Public School by Jack Curry;
Canadian Legion BESL 129 by Bernard Davidson;
Ladies Auxilliary by Margaret Henderson Jr.;
Municipality of Dysart by Gilbert Windsor;
County of Haliburton by Ronald Curry;
Province of Ontario by Mrs. Margaret Henderson Sr.

Reeve Black then read the names of those who had paid the supreme sacrifice in the two world wars after which the Rev. T. Rutherford led in prayer.

The Rev. H. Frankham of Middleton, England, the speaker of the occasion was introduced by the Rev. M. J. Cathcart.

In a brief but thought provoking address the Rev. Frankham brought home to all present the true meaning of the Day of Remembrance.

The singing of "Abide With Me" and the pronouncement of the blessing by Lieut. Gordon Brown concluded the service.

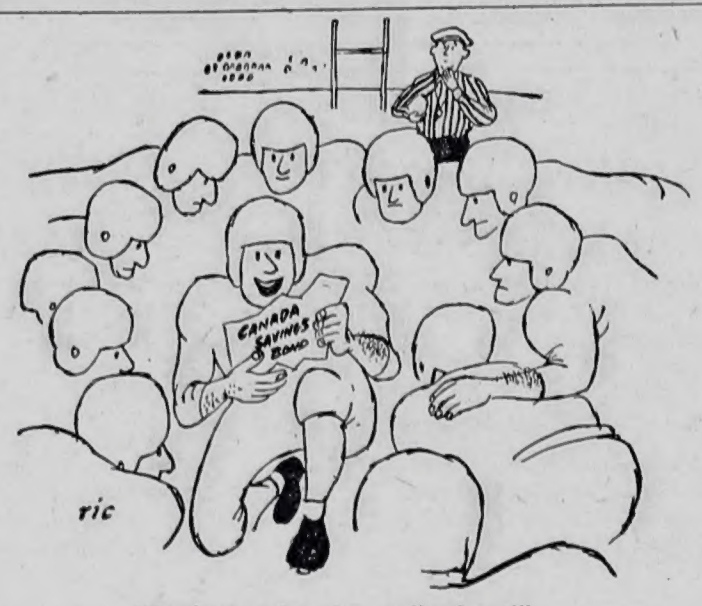
Deer Checking Stations:

Much scientific data was collected through the co-operation of returning deer hunters at three Deer Checking Stations set up in this district over the weekenl. Enforcement Officers were on the job to check on the legality of the deer coming through; technicans, assisted by other Departmental personnel including Zone Foresters, our Supervisor of Scaling and Forest Protection Specialist, collected a great deal of data as to the age and weight of deer. Not only was this information valuable to the Department but proved to be of great interest to the Hunters. The old idea that a male deer's age could be told by the points of its antlers has been exploded and several hunters were amazed when shown that the prize buck with a huge set of antlers was only three or four years of age, wheras they had estimated it to be from six to ten years.



"So that's what they talk about!"

WEST GUILFORD

Winter is here! She came to West Guilford Saturday, riding on the crest of a howling nor'easter and accompanied by a blizzard, which blanketed our land with three inches of snow. We watched a line - up of more than 20 cars, at Centre Lake; trying to make the slippery hill in vain for about an hour. Finally a few with chains and the help of tow trucks made it, then the snow was partially shovelled off, and the cavalcade went merrily on its way. All the hunters from the northern reaches of the district have to go over this road so there was much comparing of hunt news.

From all reports, the deer are not so plentiful this year as formerly. One wonders, if we are just now, beginning to feel the results of the slaughter of the migrating herd, over Bruton way, two years ago.

Some of the young sports have been in luck. Bradley Sims shot his first bear at Redstone; Stewart Wilson bagged a nice buck; Boyd Sims knocked over two deer his first morning at Ben Sawyer's. Allan Dixon, of Galt, hunting with the McPhail's at Paint Lake, tells of finding the remains of two deer killed by wolves.

From Port Perry are Mr. Herk Barry, West Stada and Mr. Wallace hunting around Silvester Barry's farm.

Dick Henderson also was one of the lucky ones, and has his venison for winter. Most of the camps will hunt for another week. This new fall of snow will be dandy for the still hunting too.

Some of the West Guilford citizens who took in the high school opening were Mr. and Mrs Prentice, Mr. and Mrs. James Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Wilson.

Little bird that says coo-coo,
Is that all you ever do?
Do you never long to roam,
Travel far from out your home?

While within the clock you stay
Must you pass the time away,
Always trying to be gay,
Do you mean it when you say
Coo-coo, coo-coo, coo-coo?

Little bird that says coo-coo
You are slightly overdue,
You should coo-coo on the hour
Sitting in your small clock tower.

Big and small hands move along,
Better hurry with your song,
'Tis a quarternow to five,
From your window look alive.

Are you sulking little bird?
Is that why you are not heard?
Coo-coo bird, are you on strike,
Are you being workmanlike?

Have you joined the C. I. O.
Have you voted not to go,
Do you think it's going to pay
If I throw you out some day?

And when in the trash you lie
You may think you're doomed to die,
But some child may find you there
Then my coo-coo, you beware

Why reproach you for delay,
You were not wound yesterday.
There — I've wound the spring up tight,
Coo-coo now with all your might.

I'll be blessed, what's that you say.
We are both coo-coo today.

Shur - Gain

It is important if production is maintained after the cows leave the choice pasture grasses, to use a properly balanced ration. So be wise ask your local dealer for SHUR - GAIN Dairy ration.

Also provide your laying flock with SHUR - GAIN laying mash, as best results are not obtained unless the flock is insured with a well balanced diet.
Always ask for SHUR-GAIN the profit proven feed.
